Pharm Labs hereby states that its Certificates of Analysis (COA) do not certify compliance with any federal, state, or local law or regulation, including but not limited to the 2018 Farm Bill. This COA is provided solely for informational purposes and is not intended for reliance by consumers or purchasers of a product. The results are based on testing performed on samples received from customers and are specific to the lot(s) identified on this COA and do not represent any other lot, batch, or product from the client. Measurement of uncertainty is available upon request and, when legally required, has been reported on the certificate. Pharm Labs makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the tested products' safety, efficacy, quality, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose. Pharm Labs expressly disclaims any liability for damages, claims, costs, or expenses arising out of the use of this COA by any party. The information contained herein is not intended to constitute an offer of any financial product or service. No representation is made that the use of the information will result in any particular outcome. The user assumes all responsibility for the use of the information and must ensure the compliance of their product(s) with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations. This COA may not be used in whole or in part for marketing, advertising, promotional, or labeling purposes without the prior written consent of Pharm Labs. This COA is valid only as of the date of issuance and does not guarantee the stability or continued conformance of the tested product beyond that date. Any dispute arising out of or related to this COA shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict of law provisions.
