PharmLabs hereby states that its Certificate of Analysis (COA) does not certify conformity with any federal, state, or local law or regulatory requirement, including but not limited to the 2018 Farm Bill. This COA is provided solely for informational purposes and is not intended for reliance by consumers or purchasers of a product. The report shall not be reproduced, stored in full, without the prior written approval of PharmLabs. This report is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease. Results apply only to the specific sample(s) and batch(es) identified on the COA and do not represent any other lot, batch, or product from the client. Measurement of uncertainty is available upon request and, when legally required, has been reported on the certificate. PharmLabs makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the tested product's safety, efficacy, quality, or fitness for a particular purpose. PharmLabs does not assume any liability for damages, claims, costs, or expenses arising out of the use, misuse, or reliance upon the COA by any party. PharmLabs relies on information provided by the client regarding the identity, quantity, and source of the submitted material. PharmLabs assumes no responsibility for errors, omissions, or misrepresentations as such information is the sole responsibility of the client to determine and ensure the compliance of their product(s) with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations. This COA may not be used in part for marketing, advertising, promotional, or labeling purposes without the prior written consent of PharmLabs. The COA is valid only as of the date of issuance and does not guarantee the stability or continued conformity of the tested product beyond that date. Any dispute arising out of or related to this COA shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.
